VOL. V. NO. 288.

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1899.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The present meeting at Bennings has provided the best racing and has been the most successful financially of any since the early days, when the sport was patronized by the civil and political dignitaries of the Capital, and was the equal of that held anywhere in the country. Of late years, however, racing at this point has been a dead letter, and Mr. Howland and his associates of the Washington Jockey Club have found it no easy task to interest the local public in the struggles of the thoroughbreds.

But more or less well directed efforts are gradually meeting with success, and the attendance this fall has been better than at any time since the new Jockey Club began the work of building up the sport. The crowds have averaged right along close to two thousand a day, an average of about thirty-five books have transacted business in the ring, and the revenue from this latter source and from the gate, as well as the privileges, has no doubt been large enough to give the club a very comfortable profit over all expenses. The new electric road to the track has been a potent factor in increasing the attendance, as it has enabled department clerks and business men who might be detained in town in the early afternoon to get out in time to see the running of the last two or three events. This they could not formerly do by rail, as steam cars only run on a schedule up to 1 or 1.30 o'clock.—Morning Telegraph.

Judging from the long list of applications made by riders for admission badges to the race track, there will be more jockeys here this year than ever before. Of course, there are a great many of the high-class riders whose names are not included among this list, but these riders are still at Bennings and will not reach here until later in the week. The list to date is as follows:

H Kelly, F Fischer, O Wondley, W Caywood, C Johnson, J J McCafferty, James Boland, R Wilson, W Stewart, G Black, Jr., L Thompson, A Johnson, C Mitchell, V Trotter, J Boland, E Jones, E McKeard, A R Nicholson, G Stevens, E Potoc, E Ames, G Holden, J Brochart, Ed Dominick, R Ranson, W Wilson, A O Sparger, C Gresham, V Ballentine, W Wood, H Patterson, C Vandusen, W Watson, H Granger, F J Lardry, T Easley, E Vittoe, K Wingfield, T Keller, J Irving, J Bradford, B Silvers, G Gordon, R Hyland, C Wedderstrand, R Murphy, C Wapshire, J Thompson, H Talley, O Kennedy, J Richards, J Lample, C Kuhn, T Lynch, L Rose and L Lines.—N. O. Picayune.

Bromley & Co.'s Typhoon II., by Top Gallant, who came out with Algol three years ago last spring and was one of the best two-year-olds of his season, will race again next year. Typhoon II. has enjoyed a long rest at Bromley & Co.'s farm in Kentucky and has grown to be a magnificent horse. He has been treated for the trouble which caused most of his cowardice, and Julius Bauer expects him to win most of the high-weight sprints in which he starts next season. Typhoon II. may start in the Metropolitan Handicap. Typhoon II. is the horse that J. C. Cahn, of St. Louis, sold to Bromley & Co. for $12,000.

At a special meeting of the Coney Island Jockey Club's Executive Committee Monday William K. Vanderbilt was elected president to succeed the late Colonel Lawrence Kip. Mr. Vanderbilt had filled several terms as vice-president of the organization and a more satisfactory choice could not well be made. Horsemen are hoping that the new president may be induced to transfer his racing interests from France to this country or establish a separate stable here. Hitherto he has shown marked interest in the sport furnished at the picturesque Sheephead Bay course and rarely missed any of the stellar events. The appearance of his colors on the track would be hailed as a sort of climax to the healthy boom established by the advent of W. C. Whitney and other prominent citizens as candidates for equine honors.—New York Sun.

THE PALO ALTO SALE

The dispersal sale of the horses composing the Palo Alto stud took place in New York Monday evening with a fairly successful issue. Gorgo brought the star price.

Several breeders wanted the daughter of Isonomy and Flirt, and the bidding ran up to $4,000 before she was struck off to Matt Dwyer as agent for an unknown principal. For the same horseman Dwyer bought Gorgo's dam, Flirt, by Hermit, for $275, Shannon Rose for $1,300, Loyallirha for $300, and several others. It was rumored that he was acting for Marcus Daly. Sydney Paget bought Fairy Rose, the dam of Racine and other winners, for $1,800. The daughter of Kieber is now in her twentieth year. Paget also purchased Cornelia for $1,000, and two or three other brood mares. Racine, a good race horse in his day, but now twelve years old, was led out of the ring without a bid. Flambeau, who was also a superior race horse, brought only $500.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Little Jack Martin is rapidly becoming as big a favorite as Johnny Reiff, and is no doubt a better rider than that promising youth. He can kick 'em nearly as hard as Bullman, sit still as long as Spencer, handle the bat like a Simms and finish the same as a Garrison. This may, of course, be drawing it a little broad, but for a sixty-pounder he possesses a head that is full of nothing but the grey matter when it comes to horse sense.—Frisco Exchange.

Lester Reiff, whose successful riding in England has been a feature of the season just ended, has signed for next year with a stable that is truly international in its make-up. The horses in the stable are mainly of English breeding. The trainer, F. W. Day, is an Australian, and the owner, Mr. A. Bailey, is a wealthy South African mine owner. Reiff, as a representative American jockey, completes the combination.—Morning Telegraph.

Charley Dwyer's horses, Sly Fox and Peaches, which have been trained by John Huggins during their English campaign, have been transferred to the stable of Charles Archer. Sly Fox has become so sour and unreliable that he cannot be depended upon to show well when he races, although in his trials he performs so creditably that his stable connections have lost large sums in backing him.

Pierre Lorillard's colors will be seen frequently on the eastern turf next season. Mr. Lorillard has made numerous entries in all the stakes recently closed by the Coney Island Jockey Club, and will probably enter freely in the events offered by the other associations.

Frank Reagan has already shipped his lot to the Crescent City. W. C. Daly will take most of his string down and W. Oliver talks of sending Warrenton, Brisk, All Gold and the rest of his serviceable lot on to do battle in the stakes and purses.

News comes from Nashville that jockey Roscoe Troxler is not particularly anxious about being reinstated. He is attending school in that city and says he is preparing himself for a higher position in life than that of a jockey.

With only two days of the meeting left, the directors of the Birmingham Jockey Club concluded to declare further racing off. The action was taken in view of the long siege of unsettled weather and the prospect of its continuance.

It is reported that William Gerst, the wealthy Cincinnati brewer, will be among the new-comers on the turf next season. Mr. Gerst has established a breeding farm near Nashville, Tenn., and will race horses of his own raising.

LAKESIDE WINNERS.

DAILY RACING FORM presents here the names of those who composed the winning owners at the two meetings held at the Lakeside track this year. The horses owned by Jerome B. Reaspas were in such form as to put him at the head of the list of the spring meeting, while T. P. Hayes had a long lead at the autumn meeting. An inspection of the list will show that the money given by the club was remarkably well distributed.

RACING FORM'S SELECTIONS.

DAILY RACING FORM has no private informahorses as they are grouped daily at various racetracks are purely those of general performance and ability as shown by the records and the application and knowledge of its editors and the reports of its correspondents. These calculations are printed daily. Nothing is hidden. All that the staff of the paper knows is put into type. If the selections made nightly are sought by persons outside the daily delivery lines of the paper they will be sent by Western Union night rate messages (collect) at $5 per track per week. Such service is not solicited, but if it is considered valuable, will be performed.
